La Femme Fantastique

Mrs. Fleming: Vital, Witty, Delightful The spark that lights the class of '80.

Mme. Fleming; the name denotes a respected teacher and admired advisor of the senior class. As an exquisite "professeur du francais", it is not surprising to find that altruism, kindness and sincerity are not "foreign" to her. The charming wit and vitality she possesses illuminate her classroom. We proudly dedicate Aegis '80 to reciprocate for the positive contribution she has made in our lives.

Many of us remember Diana: others never knew her. Those of us who do recall her remember a sweet, quiet red-haired girl.

To me, she was a good friend: we went from baby dolls to Barbie dolls together, and shared the gossip of other neighborhood kids. In Junior High, we both learned of cancer-and death.

We never made it to High School together. Few ever had the chance to know Diana as I had and what she was capable of doing for others by giving of herself.

I remember and I knew a part of her. Diana was taken into the hands of another but she still remains within me always. We all know that this world needs more people like Diana Lofgren.

Laurie Mac Farlane

Ah! little at best can all our hopes avail us
To lift this sorrow, or cheer us, when in the dark,
Unwilling, alone we embark,
And the things we have seen and have known and have heard of fail us.

The Boys Soccer Team recorded its first winning season in six years. In his second season, Coach Coburn guided his team to a 9 - 7 - 2 record. Much of the success can be attributed to co-captain Jon Wilk's league leading scoring and co-captain Pat Seely's leadership on defense.

After a slow 3-5 start, Mike O'Shaughnessy joined the team in goal and helped lead the Spartans to a 6 - 2 - 2 finish. Victories against Amherst, Agawam and Tech kept the team in contention until the final game. Two hard fought battles with league champion Greenfield each ended in 3-3 deadlocks. On the season's final day, a heartbreaking 1-0 loss to South Hadley put the coveted title permanently out of reach.

The soccer banquet proved to be successful and entertaining for both parents and players. Jon Wilk and Pat Seely shared MVP honors while sophomore Tom Hanna received the Most Improved Player Award and will be counted on to control the halfback slot in years to come.

Spartans: Good News

Starr looks for an opening

Brad heads off tackle

And Bad News

Sal busts up the middle

This year's football team fumbled through a rather confusing season. The final record was 6-4. First, the good news: In victories over Ludlow (28-0) and Drury (27-6), the team looked like Dobias' teams of yore. The Spartans also defeated Suburban league Co-Champs Greenfield (14-7). In these games, the offense performed with consummate ease and defense was stingy with yardage.

The other half of the Spartan victories were all thrillers. In a victory over Amherst (19-12), the Spartan "D" held the two leading scorers in the league to only one TD between them. The second game was a close decision over Northampton, with the defense again holding on to a slim one point victory. The final victory of the season showed the epitome of Spartan pride. Trailing 17-0 at the end of the first quarter, the Spartans began to come back, connecting on an eighty-six yard touchdown pass from Mark Blanchard to Mike Sullivan. When the Spartan team returned to the field for the second half it looked like a true powerhouse. The offensive line, made up of Center, Kurt Schuhlen, Guards Tom Mongeon and Keith Schuhlen (All-Suburban League), Tackles Mark Umland and Keith Parker, and the Ends John Blanchard and Mike Sullivan, began to open the holes for the Spartan backs Jeff Starr, Neil Bradstreet and MVP John Salvetti. Mid-way through the 3rd quarter, Mark Blanchard was injured and sophomore QB Gary Lombardo led the Spartans to the tying and winning touchdowns.

And now for the bad news. In the opening game against Chicopee, the Spartans lost a tough game (7-6). In the last half of the season, the Spartans, discouraged by injuries, lost games to South Hadley (14-7) and Minnechaug (6-0). In the final game, against Longmeadow, the Spartans were routed 21-6, closing out the season with a 6-4 record.

Under the leadership of captains Ellen Haskins, Diana Robins, and Betsy Wadden, the E. L. Girl's Swim Team finished first in their division. Diana Robbins astonished fans with an outstanding performance which brought her over her previous school record by a number of points. She finished second in the state. Kathy Wiezbicki, another record setter, slashed the 50 yd. free record previously held by Jill Wilder while Sue Wadden held her record in the 100 yd. breaststroke finishing second in Western Mass. The team showed great determination and sportsmanship throughout the season and every girl displayed great improvement. The girls look forward to an exceptional season in A division next year.

This was the first season in which girls participated on the team. The girls were Kathy Kurman, Glenda Bedard and Kris Hagstrom. B Division

Where am I?

The girls' soccer team started the season by rolling over Westfield and Commerce. After heartbreaking losses to Chicopee Comp. and Agawam, the girls bounced back with come-from-behind victories over Division 1 teams Ludlow and Classical. Lead by high-scoring Lynn Hedin, versatile goalie Reenie Moras, and fullback Liz Belch, the Spartans went on to win the Kurty Division title and defeated Drury in the Western Mass. Quarter finals 2-1. Despite losing strong starters Kim Oski and Lee Parker, the Spartans should continue their winning ways with the help of freshmen Tammy Henrich and Bev Severin, sophomores Diane Henry, Beth Neves, and Cory Spencer, and juniors Mary Lievens, Rose Medrek, Lynne Hedin, Reenie Moras, Melinda Dauten, and Liz Belch.

Girls' Field

With the aid of many outstanding players, the field hockey team finished with a fine season. The leadership and talent of the tri-captains Kim Arment, Mary Carroll, and Suzette Keddy, augmented the success of the team.

Mary Carroll, a four year varsity player, was the recipient of the MVP award this year. Suzette Keddy was acclaimed for her great defensive playing, and Kim Arment was awarded recognition as best offensive player and high scorer. Anne Carroll, a sophomore who also is an outstanding player, received the award for most improved player.

The season started very well, with a 6-0 win over Agawam. In this game, Kim Arment set a new school record, scoring 5 goals in one game. Highlights of the season also include two victories over a very strong South Hadley team.

The loss of Jennifer Fisk, a fine defensive player, proved to be very discouraging to the team. She suffered a broken nose in a game against Southwick.

With the help of the promising juniors and sophomores returning next year, the team should improve its record immensely next year. Players who should be recognized for their outstanding playing include Lauri Dobias, Alaina Miller, Kathy O'Brien, Dina Cava, and the fine sophomore goalie Pat Nichols.

As with all teams, the coaches, Miss Exley and Miss Hafey, deserve credit for providing the leadership and support needed for a strong team.

This year's team got off to a strong start with three impressive wins over Southwick, Westfield and Chicopee. The team was plagued by inexperience, which led to a six game losing streak. Co-captain John Ferrero, the only returning starter, Gene Fitzgerald and Brian Walker consistently led the Spartans in scoring while co-captain John Wilk and Neil Bradstreet helped out with ball control and defense. Mike Sullivan and Mark Blanchard greatly enhanced the rebounding power.

Brian Walker's record-breaking steal helped the Spartans back on the winning track while Gene Fitzgerald had big games of 27 and 24 points, including the first dunk in Spartan history.

The team returns next year under Coach Modjelwski, with many seasoned juniors coming back.

Because of a lack of depth, this year's EL team met with keen competition for 3rd place in the A division. As the season progressed, boys' swimming had to settle for a tie with Minnechaug. Seniors Dave Simonich, Jim McCormick and Gregg Speer strove to better their times. Juniors Gary Donlin and Bob Harvey showed great strength in their events and Peter Avdoulos showed enormous talent in wrapping up the western Mass. diving championships with our only 1st place. He, as well as Doug Wilk, will return next year to help set the pace in diving. Dan Warner and Mike LeClair, both freshmen, gave startling performances in the back stroke and achieved many key points in the dual meets.

Led by the captain and only senior, Kim Arment, the Girls' Basketball had the best season in years. The season was highlighted by wins over always-tough Longmeadow and a stunning 53-41 upset over the contending South Hadley team. High-scoring Kim Arment will be sorely missed, but with Juniors Lynne Hedin, Rose Medrek, Gina Beery and Cindy Bicknell returning, next season looks promising. Sophomores Sue Kennedy, Laurie Dobias, and Coree Spencer also had a hand in the winning season.

Hold Tight

Sal takes charge early in the match.

The wrestling team, under the superb coaching of Mr. Mazzarielo, enjoyed a very successful season. The team compiled a 9-5 record on it's way to a third place finish in Division II. The team's strength occurred at the heavier weights, where Mark deBlok, Steve Muise and Dan Lincoln wrestled. Co-captains deBlok and Muise achieved first place finishes in the competitive Granby Christmas Tournament. Steve Muise cruised to an undefeated season and a number one seed in Western Mass. while Mark deBlok's only blemish was a scoreless tie to a Ludlow opponent. deBlok's chance for Western Mass. glory with a #2 seed ended when he suffered a torn ligament at the end of the season.

Seniors Mike Torcia, Dan Yargeau, Russ White, Dave Moses, John Salvetti and Steve Whitney all made outstanding contributions throughout the season. Next year's hopes lie in the experience of returning members Tim Goguen, Craig Clarke, Doug Yargeau and Scott Somers.

Girls'

Though the Girls Gymnastic Team battled valiantly on the bars, frolicked on the floor, and bantered on the beam, they occasionally fell short of victory. Their record may have been less than perfect, but the team form is visibly improving. Juniors Mary Shaw and Lisa Majgier supported the team with numerous superb showings. Underclassmen Jill Bodnar and Cathy Mascara turned in near-perfect performances, securing the team's hopes for the future.

Fancy foot work!

Scanman saves the Spartans

Fitzzy prepares to fire.

This year, the Spartans were powerful on the ice. Throughout the season they were leading contenders in the Wright Division. Season highlights included an impressive 4-1 victory over Easthampton on Feb. 19, which put the Spartans at the top of their division. Is that game, sophomore goalie Mike Scanlon was outstanding. Other key players were Co-captains Dave Rau and Ted Fitzgerald, Jim Trase, Tom Noel and Larry Maiolo. Fitzzy was the team's leading scorer and Rau was vicious on defense.

Although a number of strong seniors are leaving the team, many capable underclassmen are returning with hopes for an equally good season next year.

Who nailed my shoes to the floor?

Pattycake, Pattycake, baker's man.

With the leadership of co-captains Sabrina Smit, the only senior on the squad, and Lori Kagan, the girls mustered the pizzazz needed to work their way into the hearts of the crowd. The Junior Varsity shows promise for next year, as they provided the pep, smiles and spirit which never failed. Let's give three cheers for the cheerleaders: One for their inspiring spirit ... One for their jubilant smiles ... One for their never-ending hope.

I hope my slip isn't showing.

... and the man?

Powder Puff!

We're not busy Prom night.

Scoffing at the chill winds blowing across the sand dunes from Longmeadow, a capacity crowd turned out for the annual Powder Puff Football Game in November. Marked by strong defensive efforts by both sides, this year's game was touch-and-go until elusive Laurie Rosati broke for a long run T.D. When Kim Oski scored a second T.D. minutes later, the enthusiastic crowd, led by the buxom cheerleaders, broke into frenzied shouts. All chances of a comeback by the White Team were squelched by the smoothly executed plays of this superb physical football machine, the Red Team.

A special bow should be directed to Blair Hundertmark for his direction of a unique 16 piece kazoo band. Their unusual offerings of "Home, Home on the Range" and "The Bell Song" from Tosca, both delighted and stunned the riotous fans.

(At press time neither M. Sullivan nor K. Parker had accepted the offers of the Dallas Cowgirls.)

Take a musician home.

McKinney's Squad Has Exceptional Season

Mrs. Lopes, Librarian, with Mrs. Kiellar and Mrs. House.

Led by senior captain David Odat, the debating team had yet another winning season. David is their star debator and, although the team will lose him next year, there are many upcoming underclassmen who show potential. Among these are Richard Brown, John Dunlop and the Federici sisters. The team entered their play-off round debating the Olympic Boycott with Holyoke as their toughest opposition, and did an excellent job. Mr. Debacher, the "Donut King", has judged for four years and is considered very competent. The team should be commended for their superb job this year.

Model Congress

This year's Model Congress surely proved to be a worthwhile and exciting learning experience for all the students involved in learning the ins and outs of government procedure. The highlight of the club's season was achieved in attendance at mock session of Congress held at A.I.C. Students from Western Massachusetts towns and cities vied to have their bills passed by this pseudo-congressional body. The experience was beneficial as students learned the various stages of ratification necessary for passage of real life bills. Perhaps a future statesman from East Longmeadow attended ... who knows?

When Bob Hunt, John Dunfey, Gene Fitzgerald and Matt Willis were having difficulties adding apples and oranges, Hui Ling Wu and Jim Thomas couldn't master the 3×3 set, and Martha Fontaine, Mike Gelineau, Tom O'Neil and Cindy Dimauro were still counting on their fingers, no one suspected their expertise. Now as Math Leaguers they pit their mathematical wits against other arithmeticians in Olympiads throughout the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Who knew they would turn out this way?

East Longmeadow High School has had an impressive record through out the last two decades on the Channel 22 TV Quiz show "As Schools Match Wits". East Longmeadow has the second best over-all school record winning two championships in the '60's and one in the 70's.

Following in the tradition of past years, ELHS has produced another successful team which qualified for semi-final competition this year. Much of the success is due to the coaching of Mrs. Troutman who greatly aided the team with unlimited time and effort. The team, consisting of seniors David Odato (captain), Lynn Buddington, Richard Haley, and junior Jim Thomas, as well as alternates Jane Saacke, Tom O'Neill, and Paul Tarsa succeeded early in the school year by defeating Enfield High School in a close match with a score of 155 to 145. The next competition was against Suffield Academy who lost to E.L. 150 to 110. The third match was played against Pittsfield High School and ELHS proved victorious again with a score of 185 against Pittsfield's 110.

After winning three matches, the team was eligible to participate in semifinals and championship rounds. A $1,000 Scholarship is awarded to the winning team. Regardless of whether the team wins the championship or not, these knowledgeable members have performed most successfully through weekly training, practice matches against teachers, and independent study. We appreciate and respect their hard work and success!

Drama Club Puts On An Act

Go for it!!!

Its mid-winter play "A Connecticut Yankee In King Arthur's Court" catapulted the Drama club from obscure beginnings to the popularity it's enjoying now. By donning medieval garb and accents, these gifted performers turned the E.L. Auditorium into a mystical 15th century world of Hocus-Pocus and deception. Standout performances by junior Rick Gallerani, seniors John Gentile and Glenda Bedard and sophomore Matt Ferri gave the play a note of professionalism. Returning members can be counted on to provide superb production in the centuries to come.

All That Jazz . . .

The E.L. band divisions produced another successful year. The marching band provided halftime shows for the home football games, music for memorial day services, and participated in the fourth of July parade.

Talented musicians Mark Wynn, Brian Walker, Rob Anderson and Selma Fontaine received District honors and added to the vibrant sounds of the funky jazz band. This highly listenable group received a first place honor in the New England Jazz festival at Berkeley Institute of Music, Boston.

The Jazz Band put in many hours to make Spartanum Spectacular the success it was. The concert attendance was very high this year with S.R.O. crowds at each performance.

Honor Society members are a hardy lot. They run up and down aisles in the dark finding elusive seats for late-comers in Wheeler Auditorium during Spartenum or a Drama Club production; warm bottles on the back burner for hungry babies during Town Meeting time; give of themselves as tutors for those who need a little more time or practice in the three R's; collect the most deserved awards in the whole school on Academic Awards night, and now even provide the surrounding countryside with their daily quota of citrus fruit. Many thanks to Miss Herschuk for her example and dedicated advising, to Dave for his leadership, USA for her Spartenum and Selma for her minutes and for adjourning the meetings on time.

All Roads Lead To Rome

The classics are alive and well at East Longmeadow High School. In fact, the Latin Club (which is a member of the larger body of classical scholars known as the Pioneer Valley Classical Association) boasts an increased membership this year with Keith Davis serving as Secretary/Treasurer and Lisa Contrino leading the way as President.

Under the direction of Miss Fay the linguists are finding that Latin need not confine itself to words describing Caesar's battle strategy- but even today may be used in modern conversation.

Participation in Classics Day activities at the University of Massachusetts as well as a Latin Volleyball Tournament with wins over Minnechaug and Chicopee Comprehensive cinched the realization that Latin is alive and kicking here.

Vive Le Circle Francais

Le Circle Français had one of its busiest, most successful years in 1979-80. They boasted their largest membership ever, with 172 official members. Under the leadership of president David Odato, vice president Jane Saake, secretary Sue Wadden, Karen Marsien as treasurer and Randy Hobbs, representative, the French Club spent time polishing its constitution and setting up regulations for the first year for a book scholarship. This year's Soirée boasted many new acts with a wonderful french version of Goldilocks, put on by Mrs. Payne's french class, with Jennifer Fisk as the star. Brian Walker's band played some original numbers and the night ended with the traditional Can-Can. Along with cheese tasting, fittings for berets and a trip to Canada, the French Club had a memorable year.

Transition was the name of 1980 as far as Student Council was concerned. Their newly enacted constitution was not only adopted by area schools but is to be a model for a seminar to be held at the annual Fall Conference. The enthusiastic group under the leadership of Jon Wilk(Pres.), John Ward(V.P.), Lynn La-Clair (Sec.), Reenie Mauras(Treas.) and Dave Gelinas(Mem. Large) never rested on their laurels but followed their energetic and innovative advisor, Mr. Hamel, in an unending effort to improve the standing and relationships of all groups in the school.

One success followed another; Freshman Orientation in August welcomed newcomers while a fall dance for over three hundred cemented the good feeling. Early in the year the Student Council was instrumental in reactivating the Field Day activities which will be held in the late spring. Once again, the Council in conjunction with Honor Society, sponsored Spartan Spectaculum, and together they purchased a mirror ball and new microphones for use at school functions. In place of the Carnival the Council sponsored a Citrus Fruit Sale whose success all participating groups shared financially. At this writing, a major charity fundraiser for the Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Council's adopted charity organization this year, is in the planning stage. Who knows what other projects they have in mind ... if they ever get around to foreign policy, the Ayatolla had better watch out!

Class

In order to avoid an increase in class dues beyond the current $30.00 rate, The Senior Class was involved in numerous fund raisers. Sabrina's Balloon Sale raised $160.00; Mary Carroll's Powder-Puff Football Game provided more cash; the Valentine's Day Carnation Sale brought in $350.00, while The Class Mug and Citrus Fruit Sale netted $674.00. Two Saturdays were devoted to recycling at the D.P.W., which also raised $200.00. At the 4th of July Carnival and Fireworks, the class earned $430.00. Aided by Mrs. Fleming, Julie kept the budget balanced. Lucia and her Prom Committee worked diligently in organizing the newly accepted Dinner-Dance, which was held at Chez Josef.

The Homeroom Representatives, consisting of Bill Paris, Gregg Speer, Shirlene Buffington, Jon Crary, Chris Ferri, AnnMarie Kopec, Kathy Miller, Kim Pash, Joanne Skiffington, Pat Speight and last but not least Marji Stevens, did an excellent job of collecting money from class dues and mugs. Their efforts made the class officers jobs much easier.

Lene Warms Danish -American Relations

Lene Grauting came to America from Lemuit, Denmark on August 29, 1979. Although she was a day late in arriving, her visit began with a bang ... the plane was hit by a bus. Blonds do have more fun!

Adapting herself to a new family was sometimes amusing, sometimes frustrating because of the differences in language and in life-styles. After the initial culture shocks, however, these small difficulties gradually disappeared.

Through the exchange program she has met students her own age from other countries and established warm friendships, of course, with East Longmeadowites.

Lene commented briefly on American schools and parent-child-teacher relationship, "Americans are different ... you hide things from your parents, and you don't talk at all about anything that matters. In Denmark, we tell our parents what we do and how we feel. It's a better way to feel and be. Our teachers are warm; they have time to listen to what we have to say, even if it isn't history in a history class. That way they can help us. It is better in my country; there is a warmth between us that is missing here. I don't think you know each other at all."

Lene is planning to continue her education when she returns to Denmark and follow a career in medicine. She hopes to come back to the United States for a visit next year and see more of the country. East Longmeadow will welcome back a friend.

Advisor — Mr. Kerson

Colonel Kerson Points the way.

Spartan Spectator

For the fourth consecutive year, the East Longmeadow High School newspaper has received a national award for journalistic excellence at the Columbia University Scholastic Press Association Convention. This year, the Spartan Spectator received a first place rank, rating the newspaper as one of the best in the nation.

The Spartan Spectator was rated with newspapers from over 2,000 schools of the same size as ELHS across the country. In each size grouping, a few schools are named medalists, the highest ranking, and a few more are named in the first, second, and third place categories. Because of the placing in the first place category, the Spartan Spectator was judged as one of the top twenty high schools papers in the U.S. by journalists of the leading newspapers in the nation.

The judged newspapers ranged from December 1979. Advisor Mr. Kerson as well as editors David Odato and Tanya Penman were greatly honored at the national distinction of the Spartan Spectator which has placed 2nd, 3rd, and 2nd, respectively since 1977.

Senior Banquet - A Night To Remember!

We did it ... together

Sabrina, Kathy, and Pam reminisce

"Let's Hear It For The Class Of '80"

Everyone loves Marge!

Right: The Final Product

Elegant Seniors-Yesterday's Memories

It was a fine night for dancing at Chez Josef ... all the girls were beautiful in their swishy skirts ... the boys romantic strangers in tuxes — even, F. Scott and Zelda were there. The class of '80, true to form, was innovative in choosing a dinner dance as an elegant occasion to say goodbye.

Do you see what I see?

Lucia checks her list again.

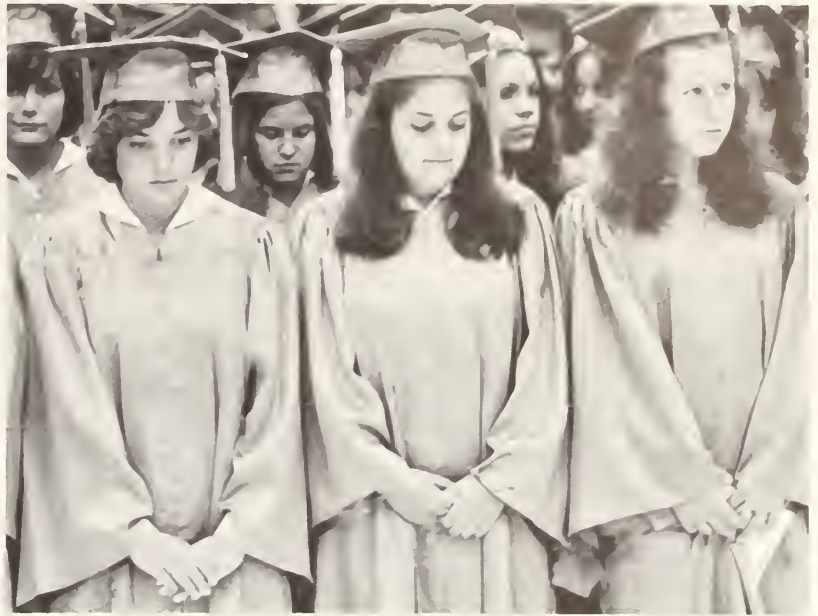

Oh Jon!

Graduation

After 12 years ...

Kim, Sue, and Joyce await their call.

Penny for your thoughts?

Congratulations Dave!

Despite the rain on June 8th, that forced the 221 graduates and hundreds of parents and friends into the gymnasium, graduation ceremonies were a success. Commencement speeches given by David Moses, Glenda Bedard, Steve Muise, John Salvetti, and Elinor Stack made that day significant and truly expressive of class feeling. As his final official pronouncement, Lucia Gour, Vice President, presented a handsome new podium to Mr. Cannone on behalf of her class.

Field Day - Battle Of The Classes!!

On your mark, get set, ...

A coke and a smile

The first annual Field Day at ELHS proved to be a notorious success. Over a period of a few hours, one could detect a display of school spirit which, for the most part, appears to have been concealed during most normal school activities. This day would not have been significant without the devoted support and dedication of Mr. Marden, Mr. Cannone, and other members of the faculty, and the tremendous number of athletic students who contributed their time and effort to the revival of spirit in our school.

A fight for the finish.

Kim gives her all out effort.

We're new here

Soirée!

The Palace of Versailles was the setting for this year's Soirée. Highlights of the evening included the performances of Sue Wadden, the French IV class's rendition of "The Three Little Bears", Julie McGill and Susan Tesoro. The Can-Can girls thrilled the audience and for the first time ever they were joined by the vivacious Boys' Can-Can. No one can ever thank Mrs. Tibbets sufficiently for her many efforts to make the night a success.

"Coach, coach can I eat this stuff?"

Awards Night

Jon gets the magic mallet

Dave takes yet another one

On May 24, many students in the high school were honored at the annual Academic Awards Night. Mr. Cannone presided at the event. Those that received numerous awards included Jennifer Fisk, Jon Wilk, Gene Fitzgerald and David Odato. Among David Odato's many awards were the French Club Award, Latin Award, and the Goodlatte English Award. For receiving the Mass. Boy's State award, Gene Fitzgerald and Kurt Schullen were invited to spend a week at Nichols College. Jennifer Fisk was invited to spend a week-end at Penn State University for receiving the Penn State's University Scholar's Award. Also honored were those who were in the Honor Society, those on Student Council, the senior members of the Spartan Spectator and the editors of the 1980 yearbook.

Spartanum

Saturday Night Live here we come.

This year's Spartanum Spectaculam was a smashing success. It featured unique acts such as a dance from the "Rocky Horror Picture Show" and Bruce Torrey's Magic Act. The Goldwomen and Silvermen portrayed the Olympic Boycott, the Iranian Situation, and the future. Superb performances were put on by Julie Shawn, Tom St. Marie, Cathi Judd, Matt Ferri and our Juggaleers, who were the highlights of the show. Emcees Chris Ferri and Dan Lincoln entertained with several skits and witty jokes. Student directors Lisa Paschetto and John Ward, with advisors Miss Herschuk and Mr. Turner, are to be commended for this professional performance.

The Chorus and their rendition of "Godspell"

Who's behind those Foster Grants?

Pops Concert . . .

Bob Rice blows his own horn!

Under the energetic direction of Mr. Cheeney and Mr. Turner, the Pops Concert shook the walls with boisterous music. Featured soloists Lynn Ross, Glenda Bedard, Linda Totman, and Cathi Judd belted out earpleasing tunes such as "The Rose" and "For You My Love".

The High School concert band tuned in with medleys from the "Rolling Stones" and "A Suite of American Dances". Many were awestruck by the sound and appearance of the High School Jazz Ensemble with their many lively tunes which included "Aquarius", "Let the Sunshine In", and "Fuga Jazz".

Tony Caliento, Brian Walker, Tim Goguen, and Dave Coderre were among the featured solo musicians, while promising freshmen in both the chorus and bands showed immense potential for future shows. The Pops Concert is a true example of what talents EL students really possess.

Synchro . . .

The Synchronized Swim Show created a big splash. Mary Nichols and Gina Scarnici went "Surfin" USA . . . Lisa Plant and Bonnie McFadden were ape over "Jungle Love" . . . while "Super" feats were performed in the grand finale. Water Wings to Miss Kerr for directing.

Strange way to keep time!

Golf Team Shows Great Form

Cut grass much?

The Golf Team rounded off a banner season with a 8-4-2 record. Coach Mazzariello looks forward to Varsity hopefuls such as Bob Doty, Tom Kennedy, Mike Mencaroni, Chaz Marino, and freshmen John Paschetto and Tim Keating for next year.

The team looked good with decisive wins over Enfield and Putnum. Varsity players Bob Doty and Tim Keating also put in good efforts in The Western Mass Tournament. Bob Doty eagled as team captain and MVP.

Fooooour!

The 1980 boy's track team performed far beyond their expectations, achieving a second place Valley Wheel finish, as well as a close second place in Western Mass. The success can be attributed to the track side — the field was not the Spartan forte.

Distance was especially strong at E. Longmeadow, the two mile, mile, and 880 were usually won. Rick Hundertmark enjoyed an undefeated season in the 2 mile, eventually breaking the school record en route to a gold medal at Western Mass. and a bronze at the state. The Spartans showed their distance strength with new comers John Kent and Jim Lovatt. Co-Captain Dave Gelinas ran many incredible come from behind victories in the mile and 880 and helped break the school record in the mile relay, with the aid of Jon Wilk (4th Western Mass. 440), Pat Seeley, and Rick Hundertmark.

The Spartan sprinters were surprisingly strong in their struggle. John Salvetti and Doug McKenny dominated the 100 getting 1,2 at most meets, and 1,3 at Western Mass. Jeff Starr and Ken King also gained many points at the meets with the 220, getting 2,3 at Western Mass. These four sprinters composed a record shattering time, taking 1st in Western Mass. and 6th in the State Meet.

Dave Coderre had many firsts, taking the high and low hurdles (2nd in Western Mass.) and high and long jumps. Rick Shaefer shattered the triple jump record.

New Coach Sparks Softball Team

Capt. Joanne Skiffington was tough at the hot corner.

This year's Softball team, led by Reanne Burke, had its ups and downs. MVP and Captain Joanne Skiffington provided strengths both offensively and defensively. Due to the loss of Joanne, Lisa Richers, Julie Viens, Karen Monroe, Kim Oski, and Pat Dimauro, hardly anyone will be left on base. Underclassmen Cathy Gentile, Alicia Trial, Anne Carroll, and Maureen Moras will be counted on in the team's future.

Boys Net Title - Girls Set For Next Year

When's practice over!

The 1980 tennis season was one of the highlights of the spring sports schedule. The girls team did quite well considering the youthfulness of the team. The roster consisted of two juniors, five sophomores, and one freshman. Jennifer Rich provided some exciting tennis, playing first singles. Sue Busekist and Rose Medrek played well all year at the first doubles position. The girls are looking forward to a big season next year with everyone returning.

The 1980 boys tennis team surprised everyone by capturing the "B" Division Championship. The team was young yet they had a lot of experience. Paul Tarsa, only a sophomore, has been playing in the number one singles position for two years and is this year's MVP. Scott Meyers and Scott Jones were very strong in the second and third singles respectively. The double provided much of the team power this year. Mike Frey and Chuck Dietsche, the team captain, were very strong playing first doubles. The second doubles team of Blair Hundertmark and freshmen Brian Gibson was instrumental in the success of the season. Bob Hunt was a real asset as a substitute. The boys finished 8-0 in their division and 9-4 overall, with losses coming at the rackets of Longmeadow, Amherst, Cathedral and Minnechaug. Wins over Agawam, Palmer and South Hadley catapulted the team to the title. After the season the boys volleyed into the individual and team Western Mass Championships. In the individual championships the performances were disappointing but in the team championships they finished runners-up to Northampton. All in all it was a very successful spring tennis season for both boys and girls.

Auf Wiedersehen

When Alexander Nickett closed the door of Room 218 for the last time in June, 1980, the faculty and students of East Longmeadow High School lost more than an intellectual colleague and skilled educator. Ostensibly, a teacher of German, Russian and English, Mr. Nickett was, in reality, an instructor to the whole person. He was dedicated to excellence in the various disciplines, not the least of which was student self-discipline. Conscientious and exacting, he was always sympathetic to the struggling girl and boy, while encouraging all students to raise their educational and personal standards to ever expanding heights. Mr. Nickett's intellectual and individual integrity has established a goal for each of us.
